RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Applicant-wife, by way of instant application under Section 24 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, seeks transfer of a divorce petition filed by the respondent-husband from Rohtak to Panipat.

Notice of motion was issued and in the meantime, further proceedings before the learned trial Court at Rohtak were stayed.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It has gone undisputed before this Court that the applicant-wife is living with her parents at Panipat. Neither the applicant-wife is having any regular source of income nor the respondent-husband is paying any amount of maintenance to the applicant-wife. Distance between Rohtak and Panipat is more than 70 kilometers.

In view of the abovesaid undisputed fact situation obtaining in the present case, this Court feels no hesitation to conclude that instant transfer application deserves to be allowed. It is so said because financial status of the wife, her regular source of income, conduct of the husband and distance between two places, besides the convenience of the wife, are some of the relevant considerations for deciding the transfer applications, like the present one.

The abovesaid view taken by this Court also finds support from the order dated 16.03.2016 passed by this Court in TA No.945 of 2015 (Sushma and others Vs. Kapil @ Sahil Bansal), which, in turn, was based on the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court.

Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned, this Court is of the considered view that instant transfer application deserves to be accepted and the same is hereby allowed. Divorce petition titled as Sanskar Arora Vs. Jinki filed by the respondent-husband, is ordered to be transferred from Rohtak to Panipat.

Accordingly, learned District Judge, Rohtak is directed to send the complete record of the abovesaid divorce petition, to the learned District Judge, Panipat at an early date and in any case within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

Learned District Judge, Panipat is also directed either to decide the case himself or assign it to the learned Court of competent jurisdiction for its early decision, in accordance with law.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, instant transfer application stands disposed of, however, with no order as to costs.
