PARAMJEET SINGH DHALIWAL, J. (ORAL)

Instant petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been filed seeking transfer of petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for short 'the Act') for dissolution of marriage filed by respondent-husband, from the Court at Sangrur to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Amritsar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that respondent has filed a petition under Section 13 of the Act at Sangrur, which is pending in the Court of learned Additional District Judge, Sangrur. Now petitioner is residing with her parents at Amritsar, which is more than 220 kms away from Amritsar. It is further contended that other proceedings are also pending between the parties at Amritsar.

TA No.452 of 2015

In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner and judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Deepti Bhandari v. Nitin Bhandari and another, 2012(1)R.C.R.(Civil) 506, it would be easier for the respondent-husband to attend the proceedings in Amritsar than for the petitioner to attend the same in Sangrur. Therefore, petition under Section 13 of the Act pending in the Court of learned Additional District, Sangrur, is ordered to be transferred to learned District Judge, Amritsar, who may assign the same to the Court of competent jurisdiction there. Learned District Judge, Sangrur, shall ensure that entire record of the case is sent to learned District Judge, Amritsar. The parties are directed to appear before the learned District Judge, Amritsar on 16.02.2016.
