PARAMJEET SINGH DHALIWAL, J. (ORAL)

Instant application has been filed under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure for transfer of Civil Appeal No.24998/2013 pending in the Court of Sh. Ashok Kapoor, Additional District Judge, Amritsar to any other competent Court at Amritsar.

I have heard learned counsel for the applicant and perused the record.

Learned counsel for the applicant has vehemently contended that the case was listed for arguments on 05.08.2015 and the applicant came to know through a common relative that the appeal would be allowed as the respondents have approached the Presiding Officer and the applicant has an apprehension that justice will not be done to him.

I have considered the contentions of learned counsel for the applicant.

The applicant has sought the transfer of civil appeal on the basis of apprehension that he confided through common relative of the parties that the aforesaid appeal would be decided in favour of the respondents as they have approached the Presiding Officer. The applicant has sought the relief on the basis of an unfounded and unreasonable apprehension which is not a justifiable reason for transferring the case. The applicant has not disclosed the name of the common relative of the parties through whom he came to know that the respondents have approached the Presiding Officer. The applicant has failed to produce any cogent and convincing evidence in support of his claim.

In view of above, no ground for transfer of the case is made out.

Dismissed.
