AT CHANDIGARH

TA No. 850 of 2015 (O&M)
Date of decision: 13.5.2016

Neelam Rani

.. Applicant

Vs.

Ashwani Kumar

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Kuldeep Singh, Advocate for
Mr. Atul Goyal, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. Ranjit Saini, Advocate for the respondent.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Applicant-wife, by way of instant transfer application under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, seeks transfer of a divorce petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, ('HM Act' for short), filed by the respondent-husband, from Yamuna Nagar to Ludhiana.

Notice of motion was issued and in the meantime, further proceedings before the learned trial court.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It has gone undisputed before this Court that there are three children out of this wedlock. Applicant-wife, alongwith her two sons, is living in her parental home at Ludhiana, whereas the daughter has been married. Neither the applicant-wife is having any regular source of income, nor the respondent-husband is paying any maintenance amount. Distance between Yamuna Nagar and Ludhiana is more than 150 Kilometers.

In view of the abovesaid undisputed fact situation obtaining in the present case, this Court is of the considered opinion that instant transfer application deserves to be allowed. It is so said because financial status of the wife, her source of income, her responsibility for bringing up the children, conduct of the respondent-husband in not paying the maintenance amount, distance between two places, besides her convenience, are some of the relevant considerations for deciding the transfer application like the present one.

The abovesaid view taken by this Court also finds support from the earlier order dated 16.03.2016 passed by this Court in TA No.945 of 2015 (Sushma and others Vs. Kapil @ Sahil Bansal), which, in turn, was based on the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court.

Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned, this Court is of the considered view that instant transfer application deserves to be accepted and the same is hereby allowed. Petition under Section 13 of the HM Act filed by the respondent-husband titled as Ashwani Kumar Vs. Neelam Rani, is ordered to be transferred from Yamuna Nagar at Jagadhri to Ludhiana.

Accordingly, the learned District Judge, Yamuna Nagar, is directed to send complete record of the abovesaid petition to the learned District Judge, Ludhiana, at an early date but in any case within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

The learned District Judge, Ludhiana is also directed either to decide the case himself or assign it to the learned court of competent jurisdiction, for an early decision, in accordance with law.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present transfer application stands disposed of, however, with no order as to costs.
