RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Applicant-wife, by way of instant transfer application under Section 24 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, seeks transfer of a petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for short 'HM Act') filed by the respondent-husband from Rewari to Gurgaon.

Notice of motion was issued and in the meantime, further proceedings before the learned trial Court were stayed.

As per office report, service is complete, however, nobody has come present on behalf of the respondent to contest the present transfer application.

As per the uncontroverted averments taken in the transfer application, it has gone undisputed before this Court that the applicant-wife is living with her parents at Gurgaon. She is not having any regular source of income. Other litigations at the instance of the applicant are also pending between the parties at Gurgaon. Distance between Gurgaon and Rewari is about 70 kilometers.

In view of the abovesaid undisputed fact situation obtaining in the present case, this Court is of the considered opinion that instant transfer application deserves to be allowed. It is so said because financial status of the wife, her regular source of income and distance between two places, besides the convenience of the wife, are some of the relevant considerations for deciding the transfer applications, like the present one.

The abovesaid view taken by this Court also finds support from the order dated 16.03.2016 passed by this Court in TA No.945 of 2015 (Sushma and others Vs. Kapil @ Sahil Bansal), which, in turn, was based on the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, as well as different High Courts, including this Court.

Considering the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case noted above, coupled with the reasons aforementioned, this Court is of the considered view that instant transfer application deserves to be accepted and the same is hereby allowed. Petition under Section 9 of the HM Act titled as Deepak Yadav Vs. Preeti Yadav filed by the respondent-husband, is ordered to be transferred from Rewari to Gurgaon.

Accordingly, learned District Judge, Rewari is directed to send the complete record of the abovesaid petition, to the learned District Judge, Gurgaon at an early date and in any case within a period of one month from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

Learned District Judge, Gurgaon is also directed either to decide the case himself or assign it to the learned Court of competent jurisdiction for its early decision, in accordance with law.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, instant transfer application stands disposed of, however, with no order as to costs.
