

BICHHA RAM VS STATE OF HARYANA AND OTHERS

Present: Mr. Sunil K. Nehra, Advocate for the applicant/petitioner.

Through the present application, review of judgment dated 19.11.2015 is sought for.

A perusal of the judgment dated 19.11.2015 shows that only one issue which was pressed before the Court at the time of arguments, was considered and decided.

Now through the different counsel, the present application has been filed seeking a decision on other grounds as well. Since the only issue pressed was decided through the judgment the review of which is sought, there is no apparent error in the judgment.

There is no occasion to review the judgment especially when the application has been filed through a different counsel and this practice has been deprecated by the Apex Court.

CM stands dismissed.
