

(224)

RA-RS-73-C of 2015 in
RSA No.561 of 1999

State of Punjab and another Vs. Jaswinder Singh and another

Present: Mr. T.N. Sarup, Additional A.G. Punjab.

Mr. N.S. Sidhu, Advocate for respondent No.1.

Review application has been filed for recalling the order dated 27.5.2015 only on the ground that substantial question of law was not on record while passing the order dated 27.5.2015. This Court considered the question of substantial question of law in para 19 which reads as under:-

“19. At this stage, it would be of avail to make a mention of order dated 28.1.2015 passed by this Court. The appellant-defendants were afforded last opportunity on 8.11.2006 to frame substantial questions of law needing determination by this Court. Since then, the matter is being adjourned time and again till we reached the date as 15.3.2015. On this day, arguments were finally heard and the matter was reserved for pronouncement of orders but even then the appellants did not file substantial questions of law despite repeated asking of this Court. It appears that the appellants are handicapped in framing substantial questions of law, rather, from the conduct of the appellants, it seems that no question of law arises for adjudication. No question of law, much less substantial one, arises for determination in this regular second appeal.”

Even though sufficient opportunity was given to the appellants, the same has not been availed. Therefore, the review applicants have not made out a case so as to review the order dated 27.5.2015. That apart, review application could be entertained only if there is an error apparent on the face of the record. Learned counsel for the review applicants has not pointed out any error apparent on the face of the order dated 27.5.2015 so as to recall the order.

Hence, review application stands dismissed.

(P.B. BAJANTHRI)
JUDGE

October 26, 2016. sandeep sethi