ORDER

11.08.2016

We are of the opinion that no question of law arises. However, it is sought to be urged on behalf of the assessee by Mr.Gupta that since the jurisdiction issue arises this court should consider the matter particularly having regard to the fact that re-assessment is ordered in respect of an assessment year which was completed 10 years ago.

This court is of the opinion that all issues including jurisdiction can be gone into by the CIT (A). Having regard to the circumstances of the case, CIT shall decide the appeal expeditiously preferably within six months.

Appeal stands disposed of in above terms.
