OA No.355/2015

1. This O.A. is disposed of with the consent order whenever plaintiffs come to India for their evidence and defendants have to cross examine the plaintiffs, defendants will not take any adjournments and the specific date for cross-examination of plaintiffs will be fixed as per consent of the parties. If because of the defendants, the cross examination of the plaintiffs has to be adjourned, then either cross examination will be deemed to be closed or defendants will be liable to pay to and fro charges of the plaintiffs who will be coming from U.K.

The O.A. stands disposed of with the aforesaid observations.
