CM no. 16965/2016 (for correction)

The learned counsel Mr. C. S. Parashar, Advocate submits that he was present on behalf of National Insurance Company Limited, when MAC appeal nos.701/2012 and 388/2014 were argued and decided. If it were so, he should have handed over his appearance as is the normal practice. Nothing further requires to be added at this point of time to the judgment already passed.

The application is disposed of with these observations.
