2. Complainant / respondent No.2 is present with her counsel and has been identified by her counsel. I have enquired from the complainant if she has settled the dispute with the petitioner amicably without any fear or pressure. She has informed that all the disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question.
3. The petition is supported by affidavits of the parties. Copy of settlement agreement dated 21.08.2015 has been placed on record. Since the dispute between the parties has been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to enable the parties to put an end to the litigation, FIR No.918/2014 under Sections 66A/66C IT Act and 354D IPC at PS Vivek Vihar, Delhi and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.
4. The petitioner is directed to deposit ₹20,000/- as costs in the Prime Minister Relief Fund within two weeks. Registry shall ensure its compliance.
5. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
