%

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that all the public witnesses have turned hostile.
2. When the court pointed out that public witnesses have fortified the case of the prosecution except identifying the petitioner but there have been recovery of motorcycle as well as gun and live cartridges at their instance from the house of the petitioner, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks leave to withdraw the bail application.
3. Leave granted.
4. Bail application is dismissed as withdrawn.
