1. Learned counsel for the petitioners, under instructions, from the petitioners who are present in court, submits that the petitioners have been running their respective shops for several years and have made huge investments and would require about three months' time for the purposes of disposal of the existing stocks and for relocation. He submits that the petitioners would not press this writ petition if time is granted till

Learned counsel for respondents submits that tenders for the said shops have already been invited and the highest bid of Rs. 70,000/- has been received in respect of Shop No. 3 and no bids have been received for Shop No. 1. This suggestion is acceptable to the petitioners.
