The complainant/Respondent No. 2 Ms. Sonia Chauhan who is present in Court and is identified by the Investigating Officer states that she has settled the matter with the petitioners which arose due to matrimonial differences between her, brother and sister-in-law and in terms of the settlement between the parties, she does not want to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Petitioners, who are also present in Court and are identified by the learned counsel states that they will abide by the terms of settlement.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 213/2015 under Sections 354/342/506/34 IPC registered at PS Patel Nagar, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed, subject to the petitioners depositing a sum of ₹10,000/- each with the Bar Council of Delhi Indigent and Disabled Lawyers' Account within two weeks.
