14.09.2016

The matter is listed today as 13.09.2016 was declared holiday on account of 'Id-ul-Zuha'.

The petitioner's grievance is that the respondents - Customs authorities are not concluding their proceedings expeditiously. It is contended that the goods were never imported but were brought for re-export purposes and that in any event the importer had in fact abandoned the goods.

The materials on record show that the respondents acted on the basis of the information by the DRI and have seized the goods.

In the circumstances, the respondents shall take steps to conclude the investigation and take appropriate follow-up action as is necessary having regard to the outcome of the investigation at the earliest convenience and preferably within four months from today.

W.P. (C) 7309/2016 stands disposed of.
