ORDER
23.09.2016

%

1. After arguments this appeal is not pressed on merits as two counsels who have argued the appeal for the appellants say that the appellants will approach the appellate court under the Slum Areas (Improvement and Clearance) Act, 1956 for relief.

2. Without in any manner opining as to whether such course of action is available to the appellants, since the appeal is not being pressed the same is accordingly disposed of.
