By this application filed under Section 482 of Cr. P.C., the petitioner seeks condonation of delay of 295 days in re-filing the accompanying petition.

CRL.REV.P. 663/2015

The present petition is filed on the ground that the complaint filed by the petitioner was returned by the learned Metropolitan Magistrate for filing the same before the Courts at Lucknow. Subsequently, there is an enactment to the effect that the State where the cheque is presented, the Courts having territorial jurisdiction shall have the jurisdiction to try such complaints.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that since the Trial Court cannot review its own order, therefore, this petition may be disposed of by granting liberty to the petitioner to present its complaint before the Trial Court.

Admittedly after an enactment, the complaint is liable to be presented before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, who had returned the same.

In view of the aforesaid, the present petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to present his complaint before the learned CMM in accordance with the enactment.
