agreeable to appoint the Arbitrator who would adjudicate the disputes between the parties. Counsel further submits that the Arbitrator would be appointed within six weeks from today. Learned counsel for the petitioner has no objection for the said appointment on behalf of the Army Purchase Organization. Thus, it is directed that the respondents will appoint the Arbitrator in the above said matters within six weeks from today. Both petitions are accordingly disposed of. Liberty is granted to the petitioner to revive the petitions if the Arbitrator is not appointment within the stipulated period.

Dasti, to both the parties.
