Learned APP for the State on instructions submits that in the above noted FIR, the three petitioners are the only accused and respondent No. 2 the complainant/victim and the respondent No.3 the other victim in the above noted FIR.

The Respondent Nos. 2 and 3 who are present in Court and are identified by the learned counsel and the Investigating Officer state that they have settled the matter with the Petitioners vide Settlement Deed dated 30th September, 2016 and they do not want to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto as the parties are neighbours.

Petitioner who are present in Court and are identified by the learned counsel affirm the statement of respondent Nos.2 and 3 and state that they would abide by the terms of the settlement dated 30th September, 2016 and to show remorse they would deposit a cost of ₹5,000/- each.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

Consequently, FIR No. 588/2016 under Sections 323/324/354/354B/509/34 IPC registered at PS Samaipur Badli, Delhi and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed, subject to the petitioners depositing ₹5,000/- each with the Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee within four weeks.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their statements made before this Court.

The petition is disposed of. Order dasti.
