CRL.M.A.No.16503/2016 (Exemption)

Exemption allowed subject to all just exceptions.

The application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 3936/2016

1. Present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.235/2014 registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC at PS Sultanpuri. It is stated that the matter has been settled amicably with the complainant / respondent No.2 vide settlement agreement dated 16.08.2016.

2. Complainant / respondent No.2 is present with her father and has been identified by the Investigating Officer. I have enquired from the complainant if she has settled the dispute with the petitioners amicably without any fear or pressure. She has informed that all the disputes between the parties have been resolved amicably with her free consent and she has no objection to the quashing of the FIR in question. Divorce has already been taken place. Pursuant to the settlement, remaining amount of ₹2.25 lacs (in cash) has been given to the complainant in the Court today.

3. The petition is supported by affidavits of the parties. Copy of settlement agreement dated 16.08.2016 has been placed on record. Since the dispute between the parties has been settled, no useful purpose will be served to continue with the proceedings. In the interest of justice and to enable the parties to settle in life after divorce, FIR No.235/2014 registered under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC at PS Sultanpuri and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

4. The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
