CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANMOHAN

ORDER

12.08.2016

Present contempt petition has been filed alleging wilful disobedience of the undertaking given by the respondents in Suit No.48/15 by virtue of which the petitioner's suit was disposed of by Mr. Vikrant Vaid, Civil Judge, Central District, Tis Hazari Courts, Delhi on 30th March, 2015.

In the opinion of this Court since the respondent's undertaking forms a part of the decree, which is executable, the petitioner has an alternative effective remedy by filing an application under Order 21 Rule 32 CPC. Consequently, this Court refuses to exercise its contempt jurisdiction.

The Supreme Court in Kanwar Singh Saini Vs. High Court of Delhi, 2012 (4) SCC 307 has held as under:-

"26. The case requires to be considered in the light of the aforesaid settled legal proposition. Whatever may be the circumstances, the court decreed the suit vide the judgment and decree dated 12-5-2003. The said decree was passed on the basis of admission/undertaking made by the appellant on 29-4-2003 and the pleadings taken by him in his written statement. Therefore, in a case where there was any disobedience of the said judgment and decree, the application under Order 39 Rule 2-A CPC should not have been entertained. Such an application is maintainable in a case where there is violation of interim injunction passed during the pendency of the suit. In the instant case, no interim order had ever been passed. Thus, the appropriate remedy available to the decree-holder Mohd. Yusuf had been to file application for execution under Order 21 Rule 32 CPC. The procedure in execution of an injunction decree is same as prescribed under Order 39 Rule 2-A i.e. attachment of property and detention of the disobedient to get the execution of the order. In view thereof, all subsequent proceedings were unwarranted.

(emphasis supplied)

In view thereof, present contempt petition is dismissed.
