%

It is stated that the amounts claimed have been approved. The principal amount due together with the interest shall be remitted to the petitioner's account within ten days. A direction is also issued that the interest shall be paid from the date it became due and not from the date of furnishing Form-9 and the calculation of interest shall be indicated.

In case there is any discrepancy, the petitioner is at liberty to apply to the VATO who shall decide the application within a month of its presentation.

Writ Petition is disposed of accordingly.
