%

Case taken up today, as 12th December, 2016 was declared a holiday.

This is an application under Section 438 Cr.P.C. filed on behalf of the petitioner Mukesh Kumar for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.418/2016, under Sections 308/323/34 IPC, registered at Police Station Kanjhawala, Delhi.

Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person having no nexus with the allegations made in the FIR bearing No.418/2016, under Sections 308/323/34 IPC, P.S. Kanjhawala, Delhi. Learned counsel further submits that the allegations made in the FIR are false and baseless. Counsel further submits that the injured too has got registered a cross-FIR bearing FIR No.417.2016, under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC, P.S. Khyala, Delhi. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner has already joined the investigation and nothing is recovered from or at the instance of the present petition and submits that the petitioner may be released on anticipatory bail.

Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, opposes the present bail application. However, it is stated in the status report that the injured has also got registered a cross-FIR against the present petitioner bearing FIR No.417/2016, under Sections 323/341/506/34 IPC at Police Station Khyala, Delhi. It is further stated in the status report that the petitioner has joined the investigation.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances and the fact that the petitioner has joined the investigation and nothing is required from his possession, the petitioner is further directed to join the investigation and in the event of his arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail, on his furnishing bail bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of the like amount, to the satisfaction of the Investigating Officer/SHO concerned.

The present application stand disposed of in the above terms.

Copy of this order be given dasti, as prayed.

L.S. MEHTA, J
