1. The Court is informed that the Respondent has, since the filing of these petitions, appointed an Arbitrator in place of the earlier Arbitrator who expressed his inability to continue. In that view of the matter, the prayers in these petitions do not survive.

2. Since the arbitration proceedings have been pending for more than three years, the learned Arbitrator will consider the request of the Petitioner for expeditious disposal of the matters.

3. The petitions are disposed of in the above terms.
