The petitioner applied before the competent authority for being released on parole as his wife is suffering from Tuberculosis.

The other ground for which the petitioner sought parole was to re-establish social ties with his family members and society.

The aforesaid prayer was rejected by competent authority on 09.07.2015 primarily on the ground of adverse police report against him.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that prayer for parole has been rejected on a wrong premise. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner had earlier been released on parole and furlough a number of times by DG(P) and on no occasion, his release caused any law and order problem.

With reference to his nominal roll, it is submitted that the petitioner has remained in jail for about 12 years by now and his overall conduct in jail has been satisfactory.

The status report affirms the fact that the wife of the petitioner is suffering from Tuberculosis.

Considering the aforesaid facts, the petitioner is directed to be released on parole for a period of 30 days to be counted from the date of his release on his furnishing a bond in the sum of Rs.5,000/- with one surety of the like amount, to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of the concerned Jail, subject to the following conditions:-

In case, the petitioner flouts any one of the conditions, an application could be moved by the SHO for cancellation of his parole and for taking of coercive steps for securing his attendance.

With these observations, the petition is disposed of.
