01.04.2016

The present revision petition has been filed against the impugned order dated 31.08.2015 whereby the Appellate Court modified the judgment dated 15.05.2015 & order on sentence dated 22.05.2015 passed by the Trial Court to the extent that imprisonment of the petitioner/accused was reduced from one year as imposed by the Trial Court for the offences punishable under Section 451/511 IPC to four months. Apart from this, the Trial Court had also imposed a fine of Rs.1,000/- on the petitioner and in default to undergo Simple Imprisonment for ten days. The fine amount already stands paid.

The nominal roll with respect to the petitioner has been filed by the State which is on record and the same shows that the petitioner has remained in custody for about one month and seventeen days and the unexpired portion of sentence of the petitioner is about two months and thirteen days.

I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned APP for the State.

Taking into consideration the above facts and circumstances, the revision petition filed by the petitioner is partly allowed to the extent that the sentence imposed on the petitioner to undergo RI for one year imposed under Section 451/511 IPC, is reduced to RI for three months.

With these observations, the petition stands disposed of.

A copy of the order be sent to the concerned Jail Superintendent forthwith.
