ORDER

% 23.02.2016

The learned counsel for the petitioner says that principal amount has been received and therefore, he has instructions to withdraw the petition. It is, however, stated by the counsel that in so far as the interest on the principal amount is concerned, his client would want to pursue an appropriate remedy in that regard.

The captioned petition and the pending application are dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for; albeit in accordance with law.
