The present contempt petition had been filed on 04th November, 2015 alleging that the petitioner's appeal has not been disposed of.

In fact, from the counter affidavits filed by the respondents, it is apparent that the petitioner's appeal had been disposed of 19th August, 2015 and the order had been received by the petitioner on 14th September, 2015. However, this fact was not disclosed in the present contempt petition. Consequently, the present contempt petition is dismissed and the notices issued by this Court are recalled.
