15.12.2016

Petitioner is father-in-law of the deceased, who died within 7 years of her marriage. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that mother-in-law, i.e., wife of the petitioner has already been granted anticipatory bail. Mother and brother of the deceased have already been examined by the trial court. No specific allegations of beatings are there against the petitioner. Petitioner was not living with his son and daughter-in-law (deceased). He was living separately. Petitioner is in custody for about last two years.

Learned APP for the State has opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner. He submits that mother and brother of the deceased have stated in their statements that after the marriage, petitioner along with his wife used to taunt the deceased that sufficient dowry was not given. Petitioner also used to taunt that gold chain and gold ring were not given in the marriage.

Keeping in mind the above facts and circumstances, petitioner is admitted to bail subject to his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of ₹25,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial court.

Application is disposed of in the above terms. Miscellaneous application is disposed of as infructuous.
