1. By way of this writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 of Cr.P.C., petitioner is praying for quashing of the order dated 19th October, 2015 passed by the respondent and seeking grant of furlough for a period of two weeks.
2. A perusal of the nominal roll of the petitioner reveals that his overall jail conduct as well as jail conduct during last one year was unsatisfactory due to recovery of prohibited articles and punishment dated 22nd August, 2015.
5. As per clause 11.2 of Parole/Furlough Guidelines-2010, in order to be eligible for release on furlough, the conduct of the convict in prison must have been uniformly good.
6. In view of the above, no ground for release of the Petitioner on furlough is made out at this stage. This writ petition is, therefore, dismissed.
7. Petitioner be informed through the concerned Jail Superintendent about the orders passed.
