After some hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner sought liberty to withdraw the present writ petition. It is stated that the petitioner's right to be considered for allotment of a category 'B' flat may be reserved.

In view of the submission, the writ petition along with the pending applications is dismissed as withdrawn.

It is up to the Co-operative Society to consider its policies and applicable regulations & byelaws and having regard to the seniority position, availability of the flat and other relevant parameters, consider petitioner's requests in accordance the law.
