CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

04/ 08-02-2017

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the victim has renewed the prayer for bail in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304B and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Accusation is of killing the daughter of the informant after few months of the marriage.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is languishing in custody since 07.01.2015. The victim died all of sudden and the information was given to the informant side but the FIR was lodged with fifteen days delay.

Learned counsel for the State submits that the petitioner is the husband of the victim who was killed within few months of the marriage and there is specific accusation of demand of rupee fifty thousand and on non-fulfillment of the same torture was inflicted.

Considering the rival submissions of the parties and perusing the report of learned SDJM, Sherghati dated 23.09.2016 as well as the report of learned VIth Additional District & Sessions Judge, Gaya dated 16.12.2016 which reflects that the charge has been framed and it will take nine months' time to conclude the trial, if the prosecution witnesses are being produced in time.

In view of the above facts, this Court is not inclined to revise its earlier order.

It is expected from the S.S.P., Gaya to produce the witnesses promptly in connection with Imamganj P.S. Case No. 43 of 2012.

Let the order be transmitted to the learned trial court as well as S.S.P., Gaya.

Accordingly, this application is dismissed.
