CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date: 11-07-2017

None appears for the petitioner.

Sri Lalit Kishore, Principal Additional Advocate

General-1 for the State.

Petitioner claiming to be a vigilant citizen seeks a direction to the respondents to enquire as to under whose fault or direction the Bihar I.A.S. Association has violated Section 144 of the Cr.P.C. which used to exist during the Bihar Legislative Council Budget Session, 2017. Taking note of the manner in which the petition has been filed, the grievance indicated therein, we find no public interest involved in the matter warranting consideration and prima facie we are convinced that it is not a case to be looked into in a Public Interest Litigation under Article 226 of the Constitution and primarily we feel that it is a misuse of the process of law.

Accordingly, we dismiss the writ petition.
