CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

6 26-07-2017 In the larger interest of the institution, the Court is satisfied that there was compulsion upon the University authorities to issue Annexure- 15. Whatever be the submission of the counsel for the petitioners, this Court cannot allow the institution to become a pocket borough of petitioner no.2, who has been at the helms of affairs of the college a bit too long. He was the founder Principal and he retired as a Principal after 33 years and it is surprising that nobody else was found to be competent to take that post or was not allowed to take that post. After retirement, he becomes the Secretary of the Managing Committee. There are also allegations of various kinds of wrong doing, which has been talked about in the latest affidavit of the University. Time has come when such institution should get rid of people, who have a deep rooted vested interest and have been using such institution for personal gain and self promotion than for development of the institution as such.

In the above circumstances, the contempt application is dismissed.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
