ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date: 30-03-2017

Now in the light of the order passed by the Supreme Court as is evident from the material on record, no further indulgence in this petition is called for. In case the petitioner points out any illegality in the counselling process, he should file a specific complaint giving specific details. On the basis of the vague and general allegation made in this petition with regard to the manner in which the counselling was done, no relief can be granted.

2 Liberty is granted to the petitioner to approach the competent authority pointing out the illegality, if any, in the counselling process and it would be for the competent authority to take a decision in accordance with law.
