It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that though the petitioner is the husband, however only general and omnibus allegation has been levelled against him and he has been in custody since 20.11.2015.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides, in view of the fact that the case is under Section 304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code and there is allegation against the petitioner of torturing the deceased and demand of dowry and also the death was in unnatural circumstances, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner the privilege of regular bail, it is accordingly rejected.

However, learned Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial and try to conclude the same within a period of one year and if the same is not concluded within the aforesaid period, the petitioner will be at liberty to renew his prayer for bail, which will be considered by the court below on the merit of the case, without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
