CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

5 21-09-2017 In absence of any clear evidence and material to show that the family pension had not been paid to mother on authorization, mere assertion on an affidavit that it was due and should be paid to the present petitioner, who claims himself to be the son, is like fishing in troubled water. The Court is not convinced that a mandamus is required to be issued in decisive term in favour of the petitioner.

Writ Application is dismissed.
