CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
and
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SUDHIR SINGH
ORAL JUDGMENT
(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)
Date: 29-03-2017

During the pendency of the matter with regard to construction of the four roads in question it is seen from the supplementary affidavit filed by the petitioner today that the Government of India, Ministry of Road Transport and Highways by order passed on 10th of March, 2017 has sanctioned a sum of Rs. 96.93 crores again as an estimate for construction of the four roads in question and the conditions stipulated now in the order is that the roads should be constructed within a period of four months.

That being so, for the present, interest of justice would be made in case the State is directed to take action in pursuance to the order (Annexure-5) dated 10th of March, 2017 filed today along with the supplementary affidavit and ensure that the work for construction of the roads in question is completed within the time stipulated by the Government of India. In case the State officials fail to do so, petitioner shall have liberty to point out the same to this Court and this Court may consider taking action in the matter against the erring officials of the State Government.

With the aforesaid, the writ petition stands disposed of.
