ORAL ORDER

4 11-07-2017 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Begusarai Muffasil P.S. case No.95 of 2014 under Section 304B, 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant, father of the victim, disclosed that his daughter was married to the petitioner in the year 2013 but the petitioner and his family members subjected her to different sorts of physical and mental torture. When the informant went to take his daughter, the petitioner and others refused to allow her to go in the company of informant and immediately thereafter the informant came to know that his daughter is traceless. He has every belief that petitioner and others must have killed his daughter and disposed of her dead body.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the police after investigation submitted charge sheet under Section 365 of the IPC but it appears that the victim is still traceless and the petitioner is husband of Sushma Kumari, the victim, and Sushma Kumari became traceless just within one year of her marriage from her in-laws house. The informant has made specific allegation against the petitioner that even during one year of marriage the petitioner and other in-laws subjected her to all sorts of torture due to non fulfillment of demand of dowry.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.
