CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA MOHAN SHARMA
ORAL ORDER

2 23-03-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel representing the State.

Petitioner seeks bail in connection with Asarganj P.S. Case
No. 60 of 2016 registered for the offence punishable under Section 7 of the Essential Commodities Act.

Allegedly, six bags of mid-day meal rice were recovered in front of the house of Laxman Sah and it is alleged that the Headmaster of the school allowed to carry away the rice under the pressure of this petitioner.

Submission is of false implication and that without any fault the petitioner is suffering in custody since 24.12.2016, another co-accused Binod Kumar Verma, the Headmaster, and Laxman Sah have already been allowed pre-arrest bail by different co-ordinate Benches of this Court and as such the petitioner deserves sympathetic consideration as he is an old man aged about 65 years.

Learned APP fairly submits that only allegation against the petitioner is that under his pressure the Headmaster allowed to carry away the mid-day meal rice.

In the facts and circumstances stated above, the petitioner above named is directed to be released on bail on execution of bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Munger in connection with Asarganj P.S. Case No. 60 of 2016, subject to the conditions that one of the bailors must be a near relative and another having sufficient immovable property within the territorial jurisdiction of the court concerned and the petitioner shall remain present on each and every date during trial and the default on two consecutive dates on his part without any reason shall disentitle the petitioner from privilege of bail.
