CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE
ORAL ORDER

4 23-05-2017 It is the admitted position that respondents have complied with the order, even though, it has been done after a period of one and half years of passing of the order by the Writ Court.

The respondents have not filed any show cause and have also not sought any apology for delay in disposal of the matter.

This Court takes serious note in the manner in which the orders passed by this Court are dealt with.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the Chairman, Bihar State Electricity Board who shall issue instructions to all concerned to ensure that the order passed by this Court is complied with in letter and spirit within the time specified by this Court.

Accordingly, the application stands disposed of.
