Sections 302, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and 27 of the Arms Act.

The prosecution case, as lodged by the informant, is that his daughter-in-law received a phone from the neighbour disclosed the name of the petitioner along with two other persons and during course of treatment, he succumbed to the injuries.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the

He submits that there is no eye-witness to the alleged occurrence and the injury found on the deceased are two in number, although three persons have been named in the First Information Report and it is not known as to on whose injury the deceased succumbed. He submits that charge-sheet has already been submitted, there is no allegation of tampering of the prosecution witnesses by the petitioner and the petitioner is in custody since 12.04.2017.

However, learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail.
