CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

2 23-11-2017 The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with

Masrakh P.S. Case No. 83 of 2017, registered for offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 504, 307, 302 and 34 of Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioner and others is of assaulting the informant and his father by a Bamboo due to which father of informant sustained injury on his head and died.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that there was no intention to kill the deceased, which will appear from the fact that there was no repetition of blow. Further he has been in custody for last six months and dispute arose between the parties on trivial matters as the children of the parties had scuffle.

Heard learned A.P.P. also.

Having heard both sides, considering the fact and circumstances of the case and serious nature of allegation, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail, his application for regular bail is, accordingly, rejected.

However, the trial court is directed to expedite the commitment of the case and to see that the case is committed within a period of one month even by separating the case of petitioner from other accused persons and after commitment try to conclude the trial within a period of seven months.
