CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 13-02-2017

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner had moved the Court alleging that the structure on his private property has been demolished by the State authorities.

A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent no. 4, in which a categorical stand has been taken that whatever demolition which may have taken place, is by a private person and not by the State authorities and in fact, an F.I.R. has also been lodged in this connection by the petitioner himself which is under investigation.

In view of the categorical statement made on oath, that the demolition has not been made by the State authorities, the Court in the present proceeding cannot pass any positive order.

In view thereof, the writ petition stands disposed off.

The petitioner is at liberty to institute appropriate proceeding before the Competent Court for seeking damages/compensation from the person concerned.
