CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

2 22-09-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioner is in custody since 20.02.2016 on his remand in connection with a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302/120(B)/34 of the of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he was remanded in the present case on the basis of a confessional statement made before the police by himself when he was in custody in connection with another case under the Arms Act. He further submits that considering the period of custody and also that the charge has now been framed and that he undertakes to present himself before the trial Court on each and every date, the petitioner may be extended the privilege of bail.

Considering the entire gamut of circumstances, let the petitioner above named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned A.D.J.-III, Bhagalpur, in connection with Mojahidpur P.S. Case No. 152 of 2015, subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) One of the bailors will be his own relative, namely, father, mother, brother, sister and/or his wife.
- (2) The petitioner shall not indulge himself in any similar offence till conclusion of the trial.
- (3) The petitioner shall remain physically present in court on each and every date during trial and in the event of failure on two consecutive dates without sufficient reasons, his bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled by the learned court concerned.
- (4) The petitioner shall co-operate with the investigation, if not already concluded, and make himself available as and when so required and in case of failure, the State shall be at liberty to move for cancellation of bail.
