ORAL ORDER

25 06-09-2017 Heard Sri Dinesh Choudhary, learned counsel for the petitioner , learned AC to Advocate General as well as Sri Raju Giri, learned counsel, who has appeared on behalf of B.N. Mandal University.

The present petition has been filed for initiating contempt proceeding against opposite parties on an allegation of willful disobedience to an order passed in CWJC No. 17642 of 2011. After filing of contempt petition number of show causes have been filed on behalf of the opposite parties and it was indicated that in compliance with the order of the writ court entire payment was made. However, earlier a dispute was raised that interest on delayed payment was not paid. Thereafter, an affidavit by way of filing reply to the rejoinder it has been stated on behalf of B.N. Mandal University that interest was also calculated and same has been paid. However, learned counsel for the petitioner has raised a dispute regarding amount of interest. He submits that a meager amount of interest has been paid, whereas as per petitioner's calculation interest is higher than the interest amount paid by the B.N. Mandal University.

The court is of the opinion that in contempt proceeding it would be difficult to examine the claim regarding calculation of interest. Since all the admissible dues has been cleared with statutory interest, there is no reason to further keep the matter pending.

The contempt petition stands disposed of.
