CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA

ORAL ORDER

10 30-11-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

As per direction contained in the order under contempt, it has been submitted by learned counsel for the State that certain undisputed amounts have been released in his favour, but on account of some audit objection raised, it has been denied to him. Thus, there is no willful disobedience of the orders passed by this Court and the contempt application can reach its logical conclusion.

Learned counsel for the petitioner however, submits that the audit objection is wholly misconceived.

Be that as it may, since payments have been made in pursuance of the order passed by this Court, no case of contempt is made out against the concerned opposite parties.

The contempt application is, accordingly, dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to approach the authorities for his disputed claims in accordance with law.
