CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY PRIYA
ORAL ORDER

4 02-03-2017 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in Pakribarawan P.S. Case No. 223 of 2016 instituted for the offence under sections 341, 323, 307, 427, 447, 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

It is alleged in the written report that petitioners with other accused persons assaulted the informant, his wife, Girija Devi, son Pappu Chauhan and daughter Keshri Kumari, causing injury in their heads and legs and other parts of the body and also damaged the door and other house hold articles.

The learned A.P.P. has submitted that injured witnesses in paras 3, 4, and 5 have all taken the name of these petitioners of assaulting them with khanti and lathi etc. The doctor has found injuries on the person of Girija Devi. The injured has specifically stated that she was assaulted and doctor has found lacerated wound on head and right side parietal region.

In view of aforesaid facts and circumstances, this court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail is rejected.

However, the petitioners are directed to surrender before the court below and seek regular bail which shall be considered and disposed off on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order.
