CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SHIVAJI PANDEY

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 11-05-2017

Heard learned counsel appearing for the respective parties.

This matter relates to the proceeding initiated under the Public Demands Recovery Act, for payment of Rs.12,13,253/- .

Earlier, the petitioner has deposited an amount of Rs.7,70,666/- and Rs.4,42,587/- was lying as due against the State Government. The State Government, in pursuance of the order of this Court, has remitted the money for utilizing the outstanding dues. As on today, the entire outstanding amount of Rs.12,13,253/- has already been liquidated by the petitioner and in pursuance thereof, ‘No Dues Certificate’ has been issued by the Darbhanga Municipal Corporation.

In such view of the matter, the present petition has been rendered infructuous. However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is not only entitled to Rs.4,42,587/- , but he is entitled more than that. The petitioner, if so advise, may take legal course as available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations and directions, this writ application is dismissed as having become infructuous.
