For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Sri Satyendra Prasad

From the order dated 21.01.2014 passed in A.B.P. No. 5322 of 2013 the petitioner was directed to make payment of the amount in installments. The petitioner did not make payment of the aforesaid amount and again filed anticipatory bail petition before learned Sessions Judge, Patna vide A.B.P. No. 67 of 2017 which was rejected by the learned Sessions Judge, Patna by the impugned order stating that petitioner has not complied the earlier order even after lapse of 36 months and filed the new anticipatory bail petition.

There is allegation against this petitioner that he gave cheque of Rs. 1,50,000/- to the complainant which got bounced.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that petitioner is ready to deposit the amount in terms of earlier observations of the learned Sessions Judge.

From the conduct of the petitioner as mentioned by learned Sessions Judge, this Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. The prayer of the petitioner for anticipatory bail is rejected.

However, if the petitioner comply the observations given by the learned Sessions Judge in the earlier order and deposit the amount, then learned Court below shall consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioner, if the petitioner surrenders before learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today in connection with Complaint Case No. 607(C) of 2012 and seek regular bail, which shall be considered and disposed off on its own merit without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
